MARGINALIA ON A FRENCH MISCELLANEA FROM THE BEGINNING OF THE XIXTH CENTURY

Ștefan ANDRONACHE

The article presents the first results of the research of some French miscellanea which, by chance, became part of the collections of Tecuci Library.

Attributing them to J.M. Lejeune, private teacher and secretary of Mihail Suțu (reigning prince of Moldavia between 1819 and 1821), the author adds some new biographical data to the portrait of the French exile, who was on the territory of our country at the beginning of the XIXth century.

The article presents several events, as experienced by J.M. Lejeune, and reproduces the content of several letters describing a voyage across Transylvania and Moldavia.
